

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Harold Blakey of Underhill is said to have infantile paralysis.

Not an arrest for drunkenness was made in Rutland on circus day.

The annual camp-meeting of the Vermont Advent Christian church is to be held at White River Junction August 12-20.

The operator's license of Frank Barabey of St. Albans was suspended Wednesday by Secretary of State Guy W. Bailey for careless and negligent driving.

Wallie Bruleigh of North Hero, who was burned in the eyes and face by a firecracker, is gaining rapidly. It is expected that he will only suffer a slight weakness of the eyes as a result of the accident.

D. A. Cota's woodworking shop at Wolcott, including machinery, tools, etc., was destroyed by fire Friday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $1500, which is said to be covered by insurance.

The postal receipts at the Burlington postoffice for the month of June, which closes the fiscal year of the office amounted to $10,612.70, which is an increase of $61.68 over the corresponding amount for the month of June in the history of the office.

Goldie, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldstein of West Rutland, was badly burned Tuesday when she fell into a bathtub containing hot water at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levy. Her arms and back were badly blistered.

William Harris of Gloverville, N. Y., was caught Tuesday afternoon on the West Jamaica branch of 12 trout, five of which were short. He paid a fine of $13.00. His excuse was that he thought that no one in Jamaica ever threw back any fish that they caught.

Louis Dimufrio, the four-year-old son of Mattio Dimufrio, of West Rutland, while playing on the Delaware & Hudson railroad track was hit by the switcher pushing cars and one of the cars ran over the child's hands, smashing it badly. It is probable that one of the fingers will have to be amputated.

David Curran, an employee of the Whitingham Mill company in Whitingham, has been sentenced to 267 days in the house of correction for larceny of three $5 bills from Napoleon Tougas, with whom he slept one night. He was fined $50 and costs of $34, which he was unable to pay and took the alternative sentence.

A special town meeting is to be held in Springfield Saturday to vote $500 to help defray the expenses of a celebration Aug. 29, 30 and 31, commemorating the 150th anniversary of the settlement of the town of Springfield, the 125th anniversary of the admission of Vermont into the union and the 50th anniversary of the granting of a charter to Springfield village.

A carload of milk and cream was held up for seven hours at the Rutland depot Tuesday evening until Mrs. Ida B. Graustein, head of a Boston milk concern, sent word that a check for the payment of milk shipped during April and May would be forthcoming. Henry Watters of Brandon, who shipped part of the milk, had entered suit against the Boston concern and Deputy Sheriff Henry R. Adams of Rutland made an attachment on the car.

$300,000 FOR REFUGEES.

House Adopts Resolution to Bring Americans Home.

Washington, July 13.—After Joseph J. Cannon had again assailed the administration's policy in Mexico the House unanimously adopted yesterday a resolution appropriating $300,000, as requested by the state department, to pay for the transportation of destitute Americans out of Mexico. Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee remarked that Congress had already appropriated $740,000 to get American citizens out of Mexico.

When Beethoven Played.

In that moment I could have sworn the pianist became a little black man with a lion's head and eyes that burned. The brow was ponderous with brooding, and the lips were straight with suffering. The ill-fitting coat was cut as once long ago coats were cut with a high collar—bumpy about the shoulders; trousers too ample. Then I saw again the wild, tossed hair, the gleaming brows and eyes that burned beneath with strange fires, and as he played the white keys faded and the great black sweep of the concert grand and the huge headed man stood quite alone, shaken by blasts of music that were but as passion, bitter as salt tears, penetrating as the infinite stars. "Heavens," said some one at my elbow, "that is Beethoven!" Then the music stopped. I tell you it was still as morning, and a little swarthy man grinned and bowed without a hand to clap him for full ten deep breaths, and when it came, the harsh, long rush of clapping hands, it seemed that great golden things were being smashed and let fall down jarring to the earth.—Exchange.

Gladstone Never Prime Minister.

Gladstone would probably have protested if any official document had described him as one of the principal secretaries of state, for he was keen on correctness in such matters. When giving evidence in a trial he was asked whether he was first lord of the treasury. He demurred at once to this description and explained that he was one of the commission for executing the office of lord high treasurer, "and I believe my name stands first on the list." In the same way it could be argued that Gladstone was never prime minister, for that post was first recognized officially eight years after his death. Sir Robert Walpole told the house of commons that he claimed no such title, and Lord North would not permit its use even in his own family.—London Spectator.

Where Van Tromp Died.

Texel, the low lying island at the entrance to the Zuyder Zee, was the scene of much fierce fighting between Dutch and English in the seventeenth century. It was off Texel that one of the greatest of Dutch admirals, Van Tromp, lost his life in 1653 in an engagement with the British under Blake, and near the same spot, almost exactly twenty years after, De Ruyter was defeated in a desperate conflict with the British and French under Rupert and D'Estrees. On Oct. 11, 1797, Texel again witnessed a heavy defeat of the Dutch, this time by Admiral Duncan.—London Mail.

Brier Is Really Heath.

Brier pipes are not made from the wild rose brier. The name is a corruption of the French word bryere (beech). The earliest brier pipes were introduced into England in 1850 and were made from the roots of the French white beech (Erica arborea).—New York World.
